Strike Action - Tuesday 28th February 2023

Dear Parent/Carer,

As you will be aware, the National Education Union (NEU), in accordance with the provisions of the Trade Union and Labour Relations Act 1992, are calling upon their members to strike. The proposed industrial action will take place on Tuesday 28th February, Wednesday 15th and Thursday 16th March 2023.

To determine if there will be the need for a full or partial closure on some or all of these days, we have undertaken a Risk Assessment and I am writing to confirm our arrangements for Tuesday 28th February 2023.

The following classes will be closed on Tuesday 28th February 2023 and children should not attend school:

Ash Class

Aspen Class

Oak Class

Chestnut Class

All other classes are open. There is an expectation from the Department of Education that children attend school if their class is open. All other children should attend school, even if they have a sibling whose class is closed.

If you are classed as a critical worker, and despite your best efforts to organise alternative provision for your child, you will experience childcare issues on Tuesday 28th February 2023, please contact the school office to see if any extraordinary provision can be provided.

We appreciate that industrial action is disruptive, and you may need to change your plans or working arrangements, whilst this action is ongoing. We will, of course, continue to monitor the arrangements in place and make modifications to improve support for students, wherever possible. However, ensuring the health and safety of our students must take priority.

Thank you for your continued support and understanding.

Kind regards

Mrs Gina Smith
