

Subject: RE		Year group: Year 1 Term: Summer 1	Title: What do Hindus believe about god?
What should I already know?  Diwali  Ramayana and the teachings.  My role within the family.		Facts I will learn: • That we have roles in the home and in jobs • Hindus believe Brahman is their God who comes in many forms. • Hindus believe the Trimurti help them with different roles and they carry/wear objects that help them • Murtis are statues or images used by Hindus during worship and these help Hindus think about God when they worship. • What is the Hindu shrine and what each part symbolises and is used for • That everyone has different roles and they are unique based on their strengths		Key questions: • What different roles do people have? • What do Hindus believe about God? • How does the Trimurti (Shiva, Vishnu and Brahma) help us with our tasks? • What are murtis (images) and how are they used in Hindu worship? • What symbols might people use to show their identity? • What makes me, me?
Key Skills: • To be able to talk about how images of the deities in Hinduism are visual representations of beliefs about God. • To have opportunities to think about the complexity of identity and how people may be seen in different ways depending on their role. • To reflect on how others may see them		Experiences that school will provide:  The Elephant and the blind men. Retelling the story • Murtis display area.		<table><tr><th>Key vocab</th><th>Definition</th></tr><tr><td>Brhama</td><td>The creator.</td></tr><tr><td>Brahman</td><td>The supreme God.
